POSTPONE OHIO RIVER WAVE
AS RAINS SOLVE PROBLEM.

The artificial rise in the Ohio River in the Cincinnati district, scheduled to be started Monday morning, has been postponed until later in the summer. Colonel W. P. Stoker of the United States Engineers, who was preparing for the wave and was to direct it, on reaching his post Monday morning found that the weather had beaten him to it. The rains which came down in abundance on Sunday throughout this section of the Ohio Valley had given all the rise needed for the big stream, bringing it back to the nine-foot stage and over. In consequence Colonel Stoker countermanded the order.

Along with giving the needed rise in the river, reports reaching the government officials indicate that the country districts benefited greatly by the rains, relief reaching large farming areas in which the dry spell had spelled trouble.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to Maysville Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back. Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work. If women only knew the cause—that Backache pains often come from weak kidneys. "I would save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys."

Read what a Maysville citizen says: Mrs. William Farley, 123 East Second street, says: "Not long ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they did me a world of good. I am pleased to recommend them. My back hurt nearly all the time and I couldn't do my work on account of the misery in my back. I couldn't sleep at night and mornings I could get up feeling all right. I would be dizzy and could see black spots before my eyes. My kidneys didn't act regularly and in other ways showed signs of disorder. My hands and arms would get numb and cold. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills highly advertised so I went to Wood & Son's Drug Store and got a box. I began using them and was soon rid of the trouble."

Price 60 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Farley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

KINDNESS IS NECESSARY TO TRAINING WILD ANIMALS

Expert Trainer With Gentry Shows Says Kindness Is Big Feature in Controlling Beasts.

The subjugation and education of animals continues to be one profession that is not over crowded, and there is plenty of room at the top for those that qualify, according to "Wink" Weaver, animal overseer of the Gentry Bros. show, coming to Maysville for two exhibitions on June 23d.

Weaver has the distinction of being the only known trainer that can govern a group of elephants by the wink of an eye, hence his nick-name.

In speaking of his peculiar business, Weaver claims a successful trainer must possess the following four qualifications at the start: first, at least as much intelligence as the animal he seeks to educate; plenty of patience; kindness; perseverance; endowed with these characteristics, any average person can succeed in training any animal from a yellow dog to a hippopotamus.

Weaver's first experience in training was with the college cat at Dartmouth, class of '02, after his return home, he soon had a troupe of felines that jumped through hoops, walked on two feet and did other stunts.

In the opinion of Weaver, an elephant is the most intelligent of all the so-called wild beasts, and they also have their peculiarities; for instance, they will not allow stoves or steam pipes in their winter quarters; they are deathly afraid of a mouse, although they will battle with a lion; they apparently never get tired and they are always willing to work; they are possessed of more strength than any other animal; they are passionately fond of children; their most common ailment is colic.

Weaver and Queen, one of the bulls with the show, have worked together 15 years and she expresses her affection for him by wrapping her trunk around his body.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING IN STATE HAS STEADY GROWTH.

Frankfort, Ky., June 21. — The report of Ivan Barnes, director of vocational education, to the Vocational Education Board, shows the growth of this department since it got into full swing this last year. Thirty white schools have introduced agriculture under the Smith-Hughes Act of Congress and one negro school, with 1,005 white boys and 21 negroes studying it. The board expects to have thirty-six white and five negro schools next year.

In Home Economics eighteen white and two negro schools, with 989 white girls and 482 negro girls taking the course were reported.

The trades and industries department, the newest one, has 715 white and 235 negro boys learning trade and salesmanship. In retail selling classes, merchants have contributed $1,200 to match the Federal appropriation.

BUY YOUR COAL DIRECT FROM MINE—BIG SAVING.

The high cost of coal is a thing of the past! At least, there are no complaints on this account—since the removal of government restrictions—among those who have learned how to buy coal. The way to buy coal is to get it direct from the mines. This saves several middlemen's profits. It saves hauling expenses. Anyone can now buy at mine prices, whether a carload buyer or one who used only ten or fifteen tons a year. This has been made possible through a plan evolved by a large and old-established concern, THE BERNICM COAL COMPANY, with main offices at 490 Como Building, Chicago.

This company has thousands of customers in various sections of the United States who receive all of their coal direct from the mines. These customers are pleased not only because of the many dollars they save every year, but also because of the quality of coal they are getting. Many write that they never before had coal that makes so little dust, that burns so well, leaving so few ashes. If you are a coal user—whether you use hard or soft coal, much or little—it will be greatly to your advantage to write the Bernicm Coal Co. at once for prices, stating kind and quantity of coal you use.

Among those who attended the conference in addition to Dean Cooper were T. J. Hunt, dean of the California College of Agriculture; G. I. Christie, Director of the Indiana Experiment Station; Andrew Boss, vice director of the Minnesota Experiment Station; and G. F. Warren, head of the Farm Management Department of Cornell University.
